Army Secretary John O. Marsh Jr. is scheduled to be the keynote speaker this week at the U.S. Army Reserve Officer Association's annual national convention.

Army Reserve officials said about 1,600 delegates will attend the convention, Wednesday through Saturday at the Hotel Utah. Marsh is scheduled to speak at Friday night's awards banquet.

Other speakers will include: John H. McMahon, deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency; Lt. Gen. John F. Forrest, deputy commander of the U.S. Army in Europe; and Lt. Gen. David E. Grange, commanding general of the Sixth U.S. Army.
